Our school children

Dear Welcome Home Friends and Family,

It has been another busy month at the home. Empty beds have been quickly filled by needy children. Poverty is continuing to take a toll on the families of Uganda. We are very pleased that some of the children are coming to us before they hit a very severe crisis of their health because of malnourishment or medical neglect. Some of the children who have been with us while their family recovered financially are preparing to make the transition back to the village.

Young people catching the vision to help our home.

Teenager Christina D. of Maine has been helping Welcome Home for quite sometime now. She is pictured with her team of young workers who made us two lovely blankets for the children. Thank you girls for all you love and effort. We appreciate your help.

Annemie and Alibert of Holland regularly work with school children in Holland to help raise funds for the Home (they are pictured on the left with two students from Emmaus Parish). If anyone would like to have someone come speak at your school or church group or another function please contact us and we will see if we can come.

Our school age children are happy to be heading out into the community every day for big school. They love the adventure off the compound mixing with all the new classmates.

Medical Adoption: Village boy Walter is in need of a loving family who will take him into the heart of their family and walk him through the years of plastic surgeries that he needs. He has severe burns also to his right foot. He is a really sweet natured boy that has done the best he can with what life has dealt him. He seems very bright and would love an opportunity to get the help he needs.

We appreciate your support. We know there are masses of needs worldwide that tug on all your hearts and pocket books. We thank you all for your faithful support of the children of Uganda at Welcome Home. Without you the miracles that we see happen for these needy children would be impossible. Thank you!!!!

Blessings from Your Welcome Home Family
